PARENTS....

Are naturally interested in Children and their under wear and hosiery. We've never said much about our stock for

BOYS AND GIRLS

little and big, but its just as complete as our Men's and Women's department and they're sold on the same terms—give the best cheapest. We always throw in such things as SATISFACTION, WEAR, FIT, etc., etc. It costs us nothing more and we please our customers by giving them the extras.

New Cloaks.

Every day we get something new. In fact everything in this department is new—

New in Shape,
New in Material,
New in Trimming.

It's the stock we show when you come here that clinches the argument for supremacy.

Fancy Goods.

The what nots and oddsends that so help to clutter up a room and make it picturesquely pretty.

Soon be thinking of Christmas.
We are preparing for it in this department. New Stamped Linens, Draping, Silk, Wash Velvets, Cords, Tassels, Pin Cushions, Down Pillows (covered and uncovered), and all the nick-nacks that belong here.

Domestic Department

Is complete. French Flannels, Blankets, Eiderdown Skirtings and the always useful Table Linen, Towels, Napkins, etc.

THE DEAD BANK ROBBER.

The Salina Outlaw Had $1,500 on His Body and a Letter.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 13.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Salina, Kas., says: The bank robber who was shot here yesterday by his pals, after he had previously wounded the cashier of the bank robbed, was found to have on his person $1,500 of the booty.
A letter was also found on him addressed to Stephen McKee, 902 Hickory street, St. Joseph, Mo.

The gang is supposed to have been the same which robbed the Port Scott bank in September. Their haunts are in the Blue Hills of Osborn county, and from yesterday's occurrence and the arrest of a member of the band at Leavenworth last week, it is believed enough information will be gained to insure the capture of the entire band.

ROTTEN LOUISIANA.

The Old Democratic Scheme of Ballot Box Robbery Has Failed.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 13.—It is now definitely settled that contests will be made in the next congress against the seating of five out of the six Democrats elected last Tuesday. The Republicans have gathered evidence showing fraud, stuffing and intimidation in the First, Second and Third districts.
Bailey, the able young Populist in the Fourth, who carried six parishes against Congressman Ogden, is also preparing to contest. Benoit, in the Fifth district, also charges wholesale fraud against Boatner. He claims to have had two spoilers at every poll in the district, who counted each voter and noted the discrepancies between the number of votes cast and the number returned. It is even charged that in several parishes the majority for Boatner exceeded the registered vote.
Madison Parish is cited as an instance.
It is said to have a registered vote of 1,010. The majority returned for Boat-ner was 2,000. It is believed the Populists count on trading their votes in the Senate for the seating of the Populist contestants in the South.

Whenever tried, in club, hotel or household, by reason of its superior strength, purity and excellence Dr. Price's Baking Powder works like a charm. None equals it.

ON AN IRONCLAD AT SEA.

Life on the Ocean Wave and Home on the Floating Deep.

Admiral von Werner, a highly authoritative in naval matters in Germany, describes in a work recently published the behavior of armor-plated men-of-war in heavy seas. He says: "Even with a moderate gale and sea and armor-plated cruiser, if going against the wind, will find herself in conditions similar to those of a storm-at least, the crew will have that impression. The movements of the stern of the ship are violent and exceedingly disagreeable. The waves pushed by the advancing prow sweep continually over the ship from bow to stern. All windows and port holes must be closed, and air reaches the lower decks, where the heat increases unbearably, only through the artificial ventilators. With the exception of the specially protected command bridge all the uncovered portions of the ship are impassable; thus the whole of the crew must bear as well as they can the heat of the closed decks. On such a ship one can feel comfortable and when there is a storm in which a sailing ship would feel comparatively at ease the crew of an armor-plated ship imagines itself to be in a heavy hurricane which threatens destruction at every minute. The long, narrow forepart of the ship, which is not borne lightly by the water, and is rendered extremely heavy by the mighty ram and the armored deck and the cannon and torpedoes, forces the ship in a high sea to pitchings and rollings of such an extraordinary kind that they cannot be described.
The crew of such a ship is not only exposed to mortal dangers, but the voyages they make render them physically, extremely and dangerously nervous; the mental impressions they receive wear them out and make the profession hateful."

THEY ARE WELL "FIXED."

What the Comte de Paris' Family Have Become Possessed Of.

The comte de Paris was not stingy, but was fond of money. His view of his children was that without heaps of money and royal incomes or wives their lot would be miserable.
Between the dowries he could give and the importance the courts of Europe attached to him as a "legiti-mate" pretender, their matrimonial prospects were brilliant. The queen of Portugal was given $30,000 a year during her parents' lifetime. She will altogether have about $60,000 or more. So will each of her sisters.
The youngest son was left the reversion of Villa Namique, which is now worth $8,000,000 francs. The comte de Paris must have been worth $325,000 a year, independently of what he had from the duchesse de Galliera.
He had a fourteenth part of the $2-000,000 francs of appanages, and of the "Orleans debt" of 10,000,000 francs, which the Versailles assembly allowed to Louis Philippe's debt.
Of the uncles and aunts' shares he and the due de Chartres had about $800,000 apiece, the arrears of their mother's dower income, which was secured on the Orleans estates. The duchess de Galliera gave about 1,500,- 000 francs. A good deal of this was sunk in improvements of the Eu and Amboise chateaux and estates, but very little of it was spent on political organizations.
The fortune of the comtesse de Paris must be very great, but it has been kept "dark."

GENERAL NOTES OF SOCIETY.

Personal Items of Interest About Topeka People and Visitors in Town.

Miss Margaret Mulvane gave a delicious high five party, complimentary to her guest, Mrs. L. E. Davidson of Kansas City last evening. The handsome home at Twelfth and Topeka avenue was tastefully and elaborately decorated in pink, white, green and yellow. The front parlor decorations were palms and white chrysanthemums; in the hall and back parlor delicate pink chrysanthemums nodded among the leaves of green and shades of the same pretty, hush threw a rosy glow over the surroundings in the library, the chrysanthemums were yellow.
The hostess carried out the color idea in her costume, which was a most becoming gown of sea-green organdie, with pink trimmings and white lace garniture. She was assisted in receiving her guests by her mother, Mrs. Frank Mulvane who wore black silk with black lace and passementerie trimmings, and also by her guest, Mrs. Davidson, who was becomingly gowned in black and white silk grenadine with white trim-
